

Small Acreage Webinar Series

A webinar is an online seminar. You can participate from any computer with internet access.

January 11, 2011 Growing Native Plants in the Front Range

Learn why natives are important. Examples of specific native plants in the Front Range will be discussed.

Presented by Crystal Strouse, City of Fort Collins Natural Areas Program Botanist

Noon to 12:30 pm

Free!

February 10, 2011 Septic System and Well Basics

An overview and troubleshooting guide for homeowners living on well and septic.

Presented by Mary Sue Liss, Environmental Health Specialist, Elbert County Health & Environment

Noon to 1:00 pm

March 10, 2011 Common Forage Grasses

Learn identification, use, and key characteristics of common dryland and irrigated grasses in Colorado.

Presented by Joe Brummer, Extension Forage Specialist and Associate Professor at CSU

Noon to 12:30 pm

To Register: email jennifer.cook@colostate.edu

United States Department of Agriculture
Natural Resources Conservation Service

